6.0. FREIGHT AND COURIER CHARGES

Zambia is linked by trunk roads to major ports in Southern and Eastern Africa including Beira (Mozambique), Durban (South Africa) and Dar es Salaam in Tanzania. Import and exports are transported by trucks on container and flat trailer as well as by rail from and to these ports. Zambia is also linked with major international airports serviced by international airlines. Packages and parcels of different sizes are transported into and from the country as air cargo by air travel.

The indicative freight charges inclusive of insurance and freight (CIF) are as follows;

7.0. LABOUR

Labour in Zambia is governed by the Minimum Wages and Conditions of Employment Act as follows;

| 7.1 | Working Conditions | There are normally two categories of employees namely the unionized and non- unionized (management) staff. Conditions of service for non-unionized employees are normally fixed by top management, while those for unionized employees are negotiated through collective bargain/ agreement |
|-----|--|---|
| 7.2 | Basic Salaries, Wages and Allowances | Allowances, which are commonly added to the basic salary, include: Housing, Transport, Education and Health cover, Water, Electricity, Holiday travel (usually for senior management staff). All allowances are taxable at the same rate as the basic salary. Other non-cash benefits may include: Transport to and from work Subsidized meals in staff canteen Sporting and recreation facilities |
| 7.3 | Pensions and Life Insurance | Membership of a pension scheme may be a condition of employment and most employers maintain a pension scheme for their employees with the National Pensions Scheme Authority (NAPSA). Employers may establish or join other pension schemes under the Pension Scheme Regulation Act |
| 7.4 | Medical Coverage and Maternity Benefits | Grant an employee full pay should illness make the employee unable to work, subject to production of a certificate from a registered physician. The maximum period for which such benefit may be given is three months at full pay, followed by three months at half pay. Some employers provide health and medical coverage through membership to private clinics to which the employee and employer contribute equally. The Act also requires that maternity leave, for female employees, be paid up to 90 days provided such female employees have worked for a minimum of twenty- four months with their employers. |
| 7.5 | Housing | The Employment Act requires employers to provide to one of the following: Housing or housing allowance in lieu thereof House loan or advance towards purchase or construction of house Guarantee facility for a mortgage |
| 7.6 | Working Hours | The normal working hours is 40 hours per week for office workers and 45 hours per week for factory workers. Overtime work should be paid at one and half times the normal rate and twice the normal rate on weekends and public holidays. |
| 7.7 | Paid Holidays | Grant paid leave of absence of not less than 24 days annually. It is, however, a normal practice for employers to provide employees with more leave days than that prescribed in the Act depending on the rank and nature of the job. |
| 7.8 | Special Leave | Employee is entitled to7 days paid leave on the death of an employee's spouse, child, mother or father. The Act also obliges the employer to provide for a funeral grant for a standard coffin, cash and food in the event of death of an employee, spouse registered child or dependent of the employee. |
| 7.9 | Termination of Employment | A contract of employment may be terminated under the Zambian law through: Resignation or Dismissal, Normal retirement or medical discharge, Expiry of contract, Redundancy, Death. |
